

ATIF HODŽIĆ, Full Professor

He was born on June 10, 1962, in Bosanska Otoka, where he finished elementary school as a student of the generation. He graduated from the Gymnasium in Bosanska Krupa, and in 1988 he graduated from the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering in Sarajevo, Department of Mechanical Wood Technology. He defended his master's thesis at the Technical Faculty of the University of Bihać on January 20, 2006, and obtained the title of Master of Technical Sciences. He defended his doctoral dissertation on July 8, 2010, at the Technical Faculty of the University of Bihać and obtained the title of Doctor of Technical Sciences in the field of wood processing technology. After graduating from the faculty, he worked at ŠIPAD "UNA" Bosanska Krupa, as a production manager at the Bosanska Krupa Solid Furniture Factory, and as technical director and director of the "Chair Factory" in Bužim. In the period 1992 - 2001, he was employed at the High School "Safet Krupić" Bosanska Krupa, and at the Higher Technical School, ie the Technical Faculty in Bihać. In the period 2001-2006, he held the responsible positions of Minister of Economy, Minister of Police and Prime Minister in the Government of Una-Sana Canton, and Member of the Assembly of Una-Sana Canton. Since November 2006, permanently employed at the Technical Faculty of the University of Bihać. Since December 15, 2010, he has been working as the Dean of the Technical Faculty. He actively speaks German and understands English. He is married and the father of two children.